BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born near Minden in Kearney County, Nebraska, on March 15, 1905, Carl Thomas Curtis was the youngest of eight children of Frank O. Curtis and Alberta Mae (Smith) Curtis. He graduated from Minden High School in 1923 and then went to Nebraska Wesleyan University at Lincoln. He taught in the public school at Minden in 1927. Curtis studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1930. Upon passing the bar he started a law practice and then served as county attorney of Kearney County from 1931-1934. Curtis married Lois Wylie-Atwater on June 6, 1931. They adopted two children. Lois died in 1970 and two years later he married Mildred Genier Baker.

Curtis was elected to the House of Representatives in 1938 on an anti-Franklin D. Roosevelt and New Deal platform. He served in the House from 1939 until 1954, being reelected every two years. Curtis ran for the Senate from Nebraska in 1954 and won the election. After incumbent Hazel Abel resigned, he was appointed on Jan. 1, 1955 to the U.S. Senate. He was reelected three more times to six-year terms, serving from 1955 to 1979. He voted for the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Curtis was loyal to the Republican Party, particularly supporting its anti-communist stances and fiscal conservatism, which included opposition to social programs such as the New Deal.

Following his retirement in 1979, Curtis moved to Lincoln, Nebraska, where he practiced law and served as an officer of the conservative lobby the American Freedom Coalition. He was a member of the Freemasons, Odd Fellows, Rotary and the Elks. Carl T. Curtis died in Lincoln on January 24, 2000. He is interred at Minden Cemetery in Minden, Kearney County, Nebraska.
