HISTORICAL NOTE

Sarpy County was organized from part of Douglas County by the Territorial Legislature on February 6, 1857. The original bill named the county Omaha, but the name was changed to honor Peter Sarpy, an early trader who managed the American Fur Trading Post at Bellevue. The first election was held May 25, 1857, and Bellevue served as county seat until a special election transferred the courthouse to the more centrally located town of Papillion, where it has remained since January 1, 1876.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This record group is divided into nine subgroups: 1) Assessment Records, 1875-1899; 2) Treasurer's Records, 1859-1976; 3) County Board Proceedings, 1880-1883; 4) County Clerk, 1857-1915; 5) Register of Deeds (no records); 6) County Court, 1871-1887; 7) District Court, 1857-1983; 8) Superintendent of Schools (no records); 9) School District Records (no records); and 10) Sarpy County Surveyor, Plat Maps showing ownership of property, 1915-1959.
