

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY COLLECTION RECORD

RG2681.AM: Nebraska Baptist State Convention, Omaha, Neb.

Records and histories: 1824-1956

Omaha, Nebraska

Size: 3 reels of microfilm

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of the file of historical material maintained by the Nebraska Baptist State Convention. The records and histories span the years 1824-1956, but the bulk of the material dates from ca.1925-1950. The order and arrangement of the collection has been maintained. It is arranged in two series: 1) Subject file; and 2) Miscellaneous material.

Series One forms the bulk of the collection. The contents of this series is arranged alphabetically by town or subject. Material included in this series includes church histories, annual reports, programs of special services, minutes of meetings and clippings.

Series Two consists of miscellaneous items not included in the alphabetical file of folders. These include minutes, 1876 and 1893, and the newspaper, The Nebraska Visitor, published at Gibbon, Nebraska, by the Nebraska Baptist Seminary, 1881-1882.

The Nebraska State Convention collection relates to the activity of the Baptist Church in Nebraska from 1867-1956. Of particular interest are the records and histories of local Baptist churches in Nebraska. A detailed inventory of the collection can be found on the following pages. Reel 1 contains folders 1-43. Reel 2 contains folders 44-76. Reel 3 contains folders 77-end.

This collection was loaned for filming by Dr. Arthur M. Clarke, Executive Secretary of the Nebraska Baptist State Convention on August 17, 1956.
