

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY COLLECTION RECORD

RG1720.AM: Youngman, Lawrence W., 1905-2003
Scrapbook: 1944-1946
Omaha, Douglas County, Neb.: Newspaper reporter
Size: 1 volume

BACKGROUND NOTE

Born June 21, 1905, at Harveyville, Kansas, Lawrence W. Youngman was the son of Charles L. and Anna (Armstrong) Youngman. After graduating from Kansas State in 1927, he served for a year on the staffs of the Manhattan (Kansas) Evening Mercury and Morning Chronicle. He left Manhattan to make a tour of Europe, and on returning, worked for Aviation magazine in New York. In 1929 Youngman joined the staff of the Omaha World-Herald. In 1944 he served as the World-Herald's war correspondent in the European theater. His assignment was to report on all of the Nebraska and western Iowa boys that he could find. Lawrence Warner Youngman died in Omaha on August 12, 2003. He is buried next to his wife, Audra Mae, in the Harveyville Cemetery at Harveyville, Kansas.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of one volume of manuscript material designated as one series: 1) Scrapbook, 1944-1946. The scrapbook consists primarily of photocopies of newspaper articles written by Lawrence Youngman during his assignment as war correspondent for the Omaha World-Herald. The reports written by Youngman pertain to the role of Nebraska and western Iowa soldiers in Europe. Photocopies of letters and telegrams received and sent by Youngman are also included.

Accession Number: 1991.708

DESCRIPTION

Scrapbook, 1944-1946

RG1720.AM: Youngman, Lawrence W., 1905-2003

Added Entries

Journalists

War correspondents

World War, 1939-1945 -- Journalism, military

World War, 1939-1945 -- Journalists

Youngman, Lawrence W., 1905-2003